

Seminars

Animal Ecology, Morphology & Biodiversity

June 2009

Thursday 4 JUNE – 16h Kolenmuseum 00.04

Application of genetics to fisheries management: The example of the Icelandic cod

Dr Christophe Pampoulie (Marine Research Institute of Iceland, Reykjavík, Iceland)

Friday 12 JUNE – 11h (!) Kolenmuseum 00.04

When does history matter? - Priority effects in phenomenological and mechanistic models of population growth

Drs Daan Gerla (Netherlands Institute of Ecology, Department of Aquatic Food Webs)

Friday 19 JUNE – 16h CPR 02.23 (!)

Natural aquatic mesocosms as models for ecology and evolution in metacommunities

Drs Bram Vanschoenwinkel (Laboratory of Animal Diversity & Systematics, KULeuven)

Wednesday 24 JUNE – 16h MTC1 00.12 (!)

Temporary pools in an ever changing river landscape

Drs Tamuka Nhiwatiwa (Laboratory of Animal Diversity & Systematics, KULeuven)