

Workshop Medicinal Plants

Tsinghua University - K.U.Leuven collaboration
(BIL09/11 / BOF - BWS and BIL08/06 / BOF - BWS)

Date: Tuesday October 26th 2010
Venue: Salons Georges (zaal 't Schaakbord)
Hogeschoolplein 15, 3000 Leuven (016 23 75 75)

Programme:

09.00-09.30: registration and coffee

09.30-10.00: Prof. Jan Geuns (Lab. Functional Biology, K.U.Leuven):
Pharmacological effects of stevioside

10.05-10.35: Prof. Jan Balzarini (Rega Institute, K.U.Leuven):
Natural product research at the Rega Institute

10.40-11.10: coffee break

11.10-11.40: Prof. Bruno Cammue (Centre of Microbial & Plant Genetics, K.U.Leuven):
Plant defensins

11.45-12.15: Prof. Wim Dehaen & Wim De Borggraeve (Chemistry Dept., K.U.Leuven):
Natural product chemistry at the Molecular Design and Synthesis Unit of the K.U.Leuven Chemistry Department

12.20-14.00: lunch

14.00-14.50: Prof. Guoan Luo (Tsinghua University, Beijing):
Modern research on Traditional Chinese Medicine in the post-genome era

15.00-15.30: Dr. Luc Van Puyvelde:
Forty years of medicinal plant research

15.35-16.00: coffee break

16.00-16.30: Profs. Wang Yiming and Qionglin Liang (Tsinghua University, Beijing):
Development of analytical approaches of Traditional Chinese Medicine

16.35-16.50: Prof. Walter Luyten (Medical School, K.U.Leuven):
The Tsinghua University - K.U.Leuven collaboration on TCM plants

16.55-17.10: Prof. Peter de Witte (Pharmacy Department, K.U.Leuven)
Testing TCM for anti-epileptic activity

Certificate for Ph.D.-programme can be obtained.

Free registration and lunch.

E-mail before October 19th to: maria.vandereeken@bio.kuleuven.be

Organizer: Walter Luyten (walter.luyten@med.kuleuven.be)